How does it work?

How does Custom Artist work?

Step 1

Without any obligations, clients place an assignment on the website. There is a description of the assignment, substantiated with pictures. The client can use many different variables to define the 'feeling' of the artwork they are looking for. They can also add a target price they are offering the artist.

Step 2

The artist logs in and looks for assignments. They can add an artwork proposal to an assignment. They can add a full description along with sketches. They will be hidden from other artists.

Step 3

The client can view the assignment proposals when they log in. The client chooses the artwork proposal they like best and contact between the client and artist can be ignited. The client deletes the assignment once it is done.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying 'http://www.customartist.com'. The website has a header with the 'Custom Artist' logo on the left, which includes a pencil icon. Navigation links for 'Artist Login', 'Client Login', and 'How does it work?' are on the right. A central modal window titled 'Register as Artist' contains a registration form with the following fields: 'Username', 'Password' (two separate boxes), 'E-mail', 'First Name', and 'Last Name'. A 'Register!' button is at the bottom of the form. The background of the website shows a 'Welcome' section with the text 'The online support...' and 'Custom Artist joins create...'.
